Dedication

We, the Annual Staff of the 1980 Talespin, wish to express the appreciation of students and alumni by dedicating this book to our principal, Mr. Harold F. Barr, because of his sincere contribution to the welfare and guidance of the students these past and present 19 years here at Fulton High School.

WHAT DO YOU THINK OF FULTON SCHOOLS?

ANNETTE ANDERSON:

"IT'S OKAY, SPORTS GREAT, FOOD CRUMMY,
IT'S A GOOD SCHOOL FOR LEARNING IF THATS WHAT YOU COME FOR."

MR. ANDREW SAYERS:

"EDUCATION FOR THOSE WHO WANT IT."

JEFF WALDRON:

"IT'S A SCHOOL THAT HAS ALOT OF
PRIDE IN WHAT IT DOES AND IS VERY HIGH-CLASSED."

TODD BIRD:

"IT'S SMALL, HAS NICE PEOPLE,
AND HE ENJOYS IT HERE."

BOB TIPTON:

"IT'S OK."

"SENIORS! JUNIORS! SOPHOMORES! FRESHMEN!" If you were at Fulton High School during the week of October 15-19, you might have heard these words ringing through the halls. The cheerleaders planned spirit-filled activities for each day. Monday: clown and hobo day; Tuesday: crazy hairdo and glasses day; Wednesday: jersey and sweatsuits day; Thursday: 50's day and the annual pompon race; Friday: Blue and Gold day. The week was topped off with a snake dance and bonfire Thursday night, and a Homecoming Victory Friday.

I told you, you should have taken a size bigger!

Barb and Her Court

The process used to choose the queen's court consisted of the selection of the top ten girls from the class voted by the senior class. The top ten girls were presented to the student body for them (the student body) to select five of the girls. The five selected were voted on during Homecoming week by the student body and each person voted for two girls and the girl with the majority of the votes became our queen.

Peanut Characters Come to Life

This year the theme for the Homecoming Floats was "Peanut Characters". The Freshman Class received first place with their theme being, "Pirate victory is music to our ears" with Schroeder and Lucy. The Juniors came in second with their theme, "Put 'em in the doghouse" with Snoopy. The Sophomore class came in third with, "Knock 'em dizzy" and Charlie Brown demonstrated this as Lucy's victim. Last, but not least, came the seniors with their undeserved fourth place, "Pirates will secure a victory" with Linus and his blanket.

Pirate Hazards

Did you know there are approximately 90 vehicles driven to school each day school is in session? Some are driven for co-op, some for school activities, some for faculty, and others just for the sake of not having to ride the bus. We asked a few High School students why they liked to drive to school and here are their replies:

Jim Coblentz, "because I hate riding the bus, and because I get free gas from my dad."

Eric Beard, "because the bus ride is too rough, the bus is cold, and because I can't stand the little brats."

The year's assemblies included such things as: pantomimes, E.S.P., a rock group, and a speaker from Norway who told us how great a place America is to live in. The rock group Free Fair, an unpaid assembly, not only performed at school for us, but put on a night concert at which Fulton was well represented.

Students at Work

Many students this year had opportunities to work off the school grounds in Co-op and Vocational jobs. Julie Johnson (above) had the experience of working in the Nursing Home. Dan Pendell (right) is shown working at Cross Roads Farms milking cows.

Both Shelly and Thelma work in the Media Center for credit. They do just about anything you can imagine and have a lot of fun doing it.

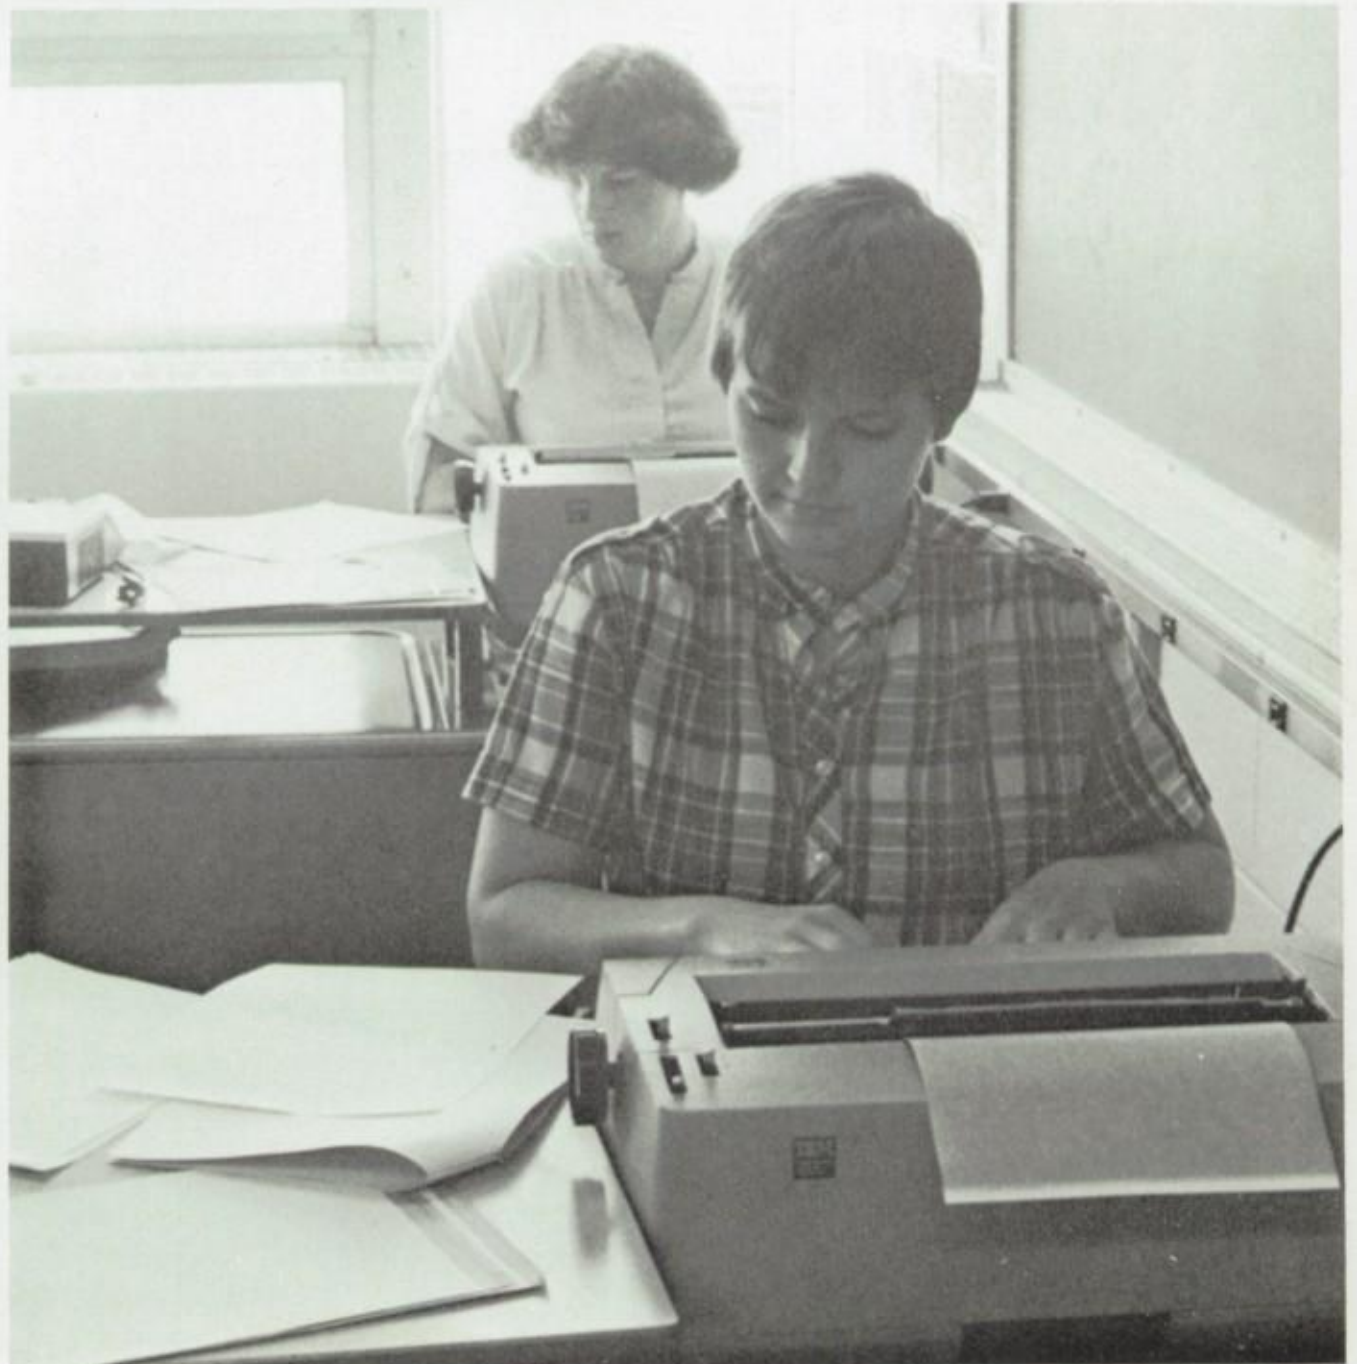

Les works in the Guidance Office for Mr. Knapp. He does errands and just helps out. He gets paid for working here, as do a few of the other cadets. We can see that he's a great help.

Jan, in front, works in the office helping the secretaries. Doing this, she is learning skills. Debbie, in the back, is a cadet for Miss Nunemaker. She runs errands and a lot of other things to make Miss Nunemaker's day that much easier.

Some Enchanted Evening

On Saturday, May 10th, the junior Class hosted the banquet for the senior class with parts of the former Senior Class Night added. Junior class President, Cindy Burr opened with a welcome to the banquet, and Senior representative, Lori Benner gave a special thank-you to the juniors for the banquet and all the work that went into it. Mr. Andrew Sayers was chosen to give the address to the seniors.

Class night included the reciting of the class poem by Debbie Hyde and Sarah Ondrus; the presentation of the class history by Darlene Cramer and Lisa Cole; the reading of the class wills by Barb Warnke and Carol Garner; the interpretation of the class prophecies by Larry Fisk and Pat Bird, and the presentation of Senior Key Awards by the faculty.

THE AMAZEMENT PARK

On May 18, 1980, at 7:00 AM, 44 seniors and 6 chaperones, with all their luggage, were forced on to one school bus and hi-jacked to Sandusky, Ohio. When they arrived, they were given accommodations at the Best Western, and then set free to roam the premises of Cedar Point.

Sherrie Gault and Michelle Inniger receive awards for excellence in Business.

Monte Malek and Ron Murdock receive Industrial Arts awards.

In this year of many changes, a new program was added to Fulton High School's spring schedule. The Board of Education wished to honor the students with academic achievements. A committee of faculty members set up the criteria and planned the first annual Awards Night.

Awards were presented in all twelve subject areas. In order to receive an award, a student must exhibit academic quality, an inquiring spirit, initiative and extra effort in classroom work. A total of 77 awards was distributed among 48 students. Now, that is a real honor!

Ron Lounds' kite was named best of show, for which he received a special award.

Martin Moran, a lively fan of the Pirates, lives with the Allen Hamp family.

Martin lives in Mandaluyong, Philippines.

While he was here he was very active. He was the manager of the boys Freshmen Basketball team. He also participated on the Golf team.

Martin said that his favorite food was Spaghetti, Pizza, and most Japanese foods. He also said that the thing that he liked most about Michigan and Fulton High was the girls!

Our Pirates started the season in non-too-high spirits. Losing to the All-Saints and Fulton's number one rival, the Eagles. They then lost 10 players - having to resort to the J.V. squad for replacements. You can't keep a good team down, tho', especially at Fulton! The Pirates came back and built up a steam of wins toward a dramatic finale with the Charlotte Orioles, winning in the final seconds of the game.

Live from F.H.S.!

Here is Denise Davis with sports, announcing from Fulton Fieldhouse on tonight's big game between the Fulton (Lady) Pirates and the Shepherd Blue Jays. We have for you now the results of this game with the Lady Cagers defeating the Blue Jays by a margin of 44 points. The team has had a wonderful season. This year they finished with a season record of 21-4, they were league champs with a record of 13-1, and they captured their District Title without the slightest problem. The girls also competed in Regionals, winning the first game, but then dropped Regional finals to Saginaw Carrollton, who later became State Class "C" Champs.

Good game! Good game!

Led by senior All-Stater, Jim Slavik, the 1979 Fulton Cross Country team enjoyed its most successful season ever. Although the season got off to a slow start, hard work and determination soon brought results. New to this year's team were junior Rob Hanson and sophomore Kathy Baker. Other key personnel in team triumphs were juniors David Drake and Chris Price, and sophomores Matt Baker, John Swanson, and Paul Warnke.

Jim Slavik and Chris Price were chosen as co-most valuable runners and John Swanson was voted most improved. 1979 was a very good year and the future looks bright

Seniors always have such weighty decisions to make, such as: class colors, class song, class flower, etc. The Class of '80 was lead in these decisions by Cherie Baker, Secretary; Sandy Price, President; Sarah Ondrus, Treasurer; and Debbie Lubahn, Vice-President.

An Ending And A Beginning

The acceptance of diplomas, the handshakes, the tears of joy at our accomplishments, and the wishing for happy futures are all a part of graduation

The seniors this year did things differently from past years. They had no guest speaker, no valedictorian or salutatorian addresses. The speakers this year were honor students. The program was a great success.

Chris Kissane was named Valedictorian and Michelle Floate was named Salutatorian. Athol Gamble scholarships were received by Don Ruff, Michelle Floate and Chris Kissane. The Mark Daniels scholarship award went to Lori Benner.

Mr. Barr was given an honorary diploma for his 19 years of service.

Seniors, at last, turning over a new leaf in life.

We would like to dedicate this Commencement page to our past classmates that have parted before graduation. Among our friends we would especially like to acknowledge David Kirby.

The school newspaper is supervised by Ms. McCarty. This year they entertained you with twelve editions of sports, poetry, senior sketches, special events, and all the latest in Fulton High School news.

The following students are members of the Fulton High School Pirate's Patch: Debbie Lubahn, Marcy Fisher, Annette Bontrager, Chris Kissane, Trisha Zamarron, Celia Cook, Gloria Lopez, Janelle Davis, Donna Kay, Todd Bird, Vangie Maniez, Kathy Lumsden, Tammy Thompson, Sharyl Simmons, Pam Winsor, Tara Woods, Michelle Fabus, Denise Davis, Micky Friesen, Shawna Mora, Pat Bird, Cindy Malson, Julie Johnson, Janell Warren, Becky Anderson, Lori Benner and Greg Winsor

Hard at work, the council discusses the Muscular Dystrophy campaign at a very stimulating meeting. Besides putting on assemblies, the council operates the ice cream machine and sponsors the Home-coming dance. This year they also raised money for the Carson City Rescue Squad.

An everyday occurrence.

Contained in this picture are some of the members of the 1979-80 Ski Club.

These skiers had to face fickle Michigan weather (rain, no snow) and lack of interest. Despite these odds, there were more ski club cards sold and more students that went than ever before. The club traveled a record four times to Cannonsburg.

The 1979-80 FFA chapter had a number of accomplishments this year. Among these are: hosting a Donkey basketball game; winning the district Ag Forum and competing at Regionals; holding a banquet recognizing the FFA's individual achievements; three state farmers and 2 proficiency award winners at the state level. One sad note for the year was the month-long absence of their advisor, Mr. Edgerly due to illness. Members pictured include: L. Wood, Pres.; D. Davis, V. Pres.; D. Davis, Sec'y.; K. Bradley, Treas.; J. Waldron, Sent'l. A. Stephens, S. Beals, D. Trefil, A. Anderson, J. Swanson, D. Trefil, J. Wineland, G. Malson, S. Friesen,

SCIENCE

(but not fiction)

"Today we'll be experimenting with titration. WEAR YOUR GOGGLES!"

"There are several types of termites. . . ."

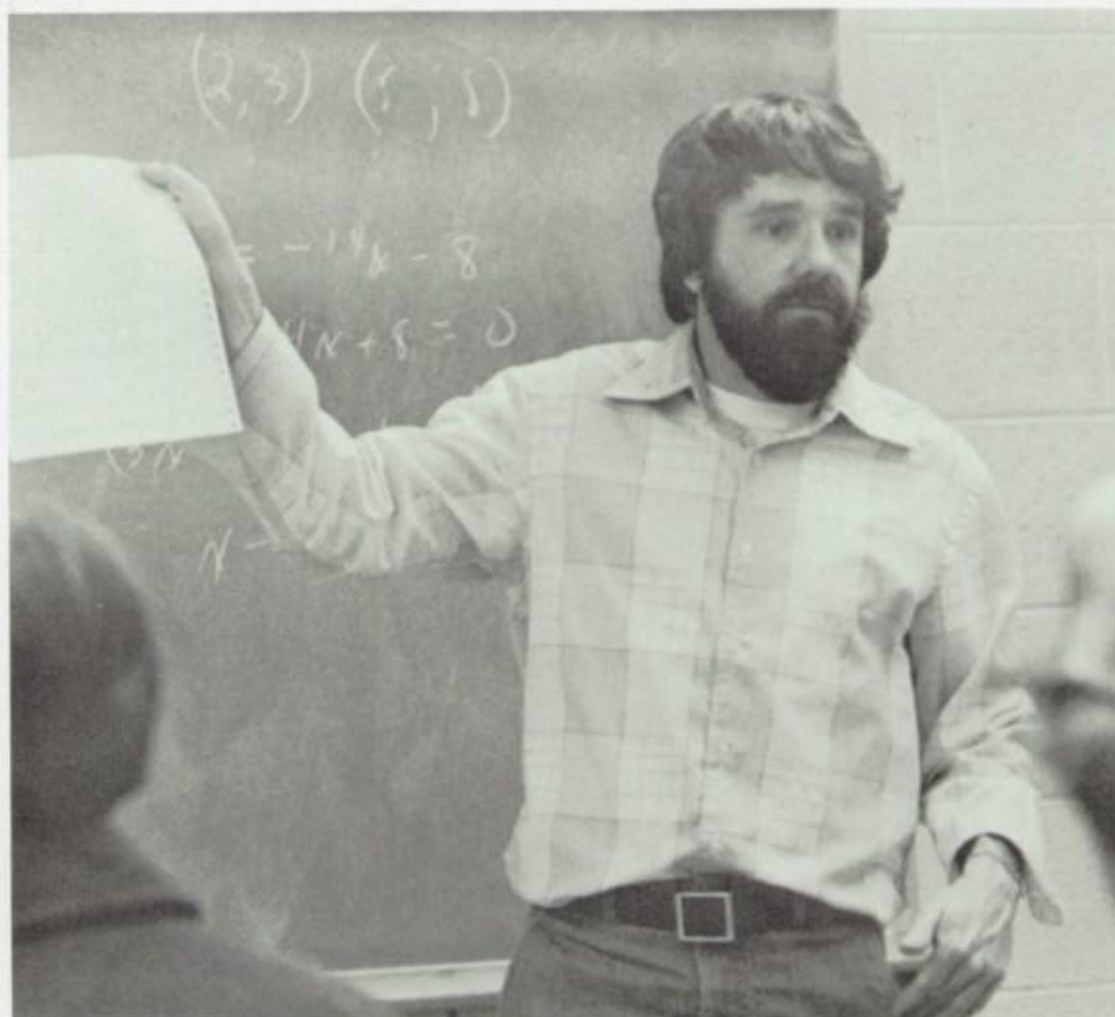

Welcome to the world of Science! Under the direction of Mr. Parker and Mr. Reynolds you can learn almost anything about Earth Science, Biology, Chemistry or Physics. If you are looking for answers, go to Rooms 108 and 109.

Amid the revolving sphere of Trigonometry, Pre- Algebra and

Mr. Miller Mr. Wright

Geometry, there are two names
that stick out most in the minds of math students at Fulton High.

In Room 101 you can find Mr. Merritt who teaches United States History, Government, and Economics.

You may find yourself in Room 112, giving a speech, having your face made up, or putting on a play, with Mr. Pell as director.

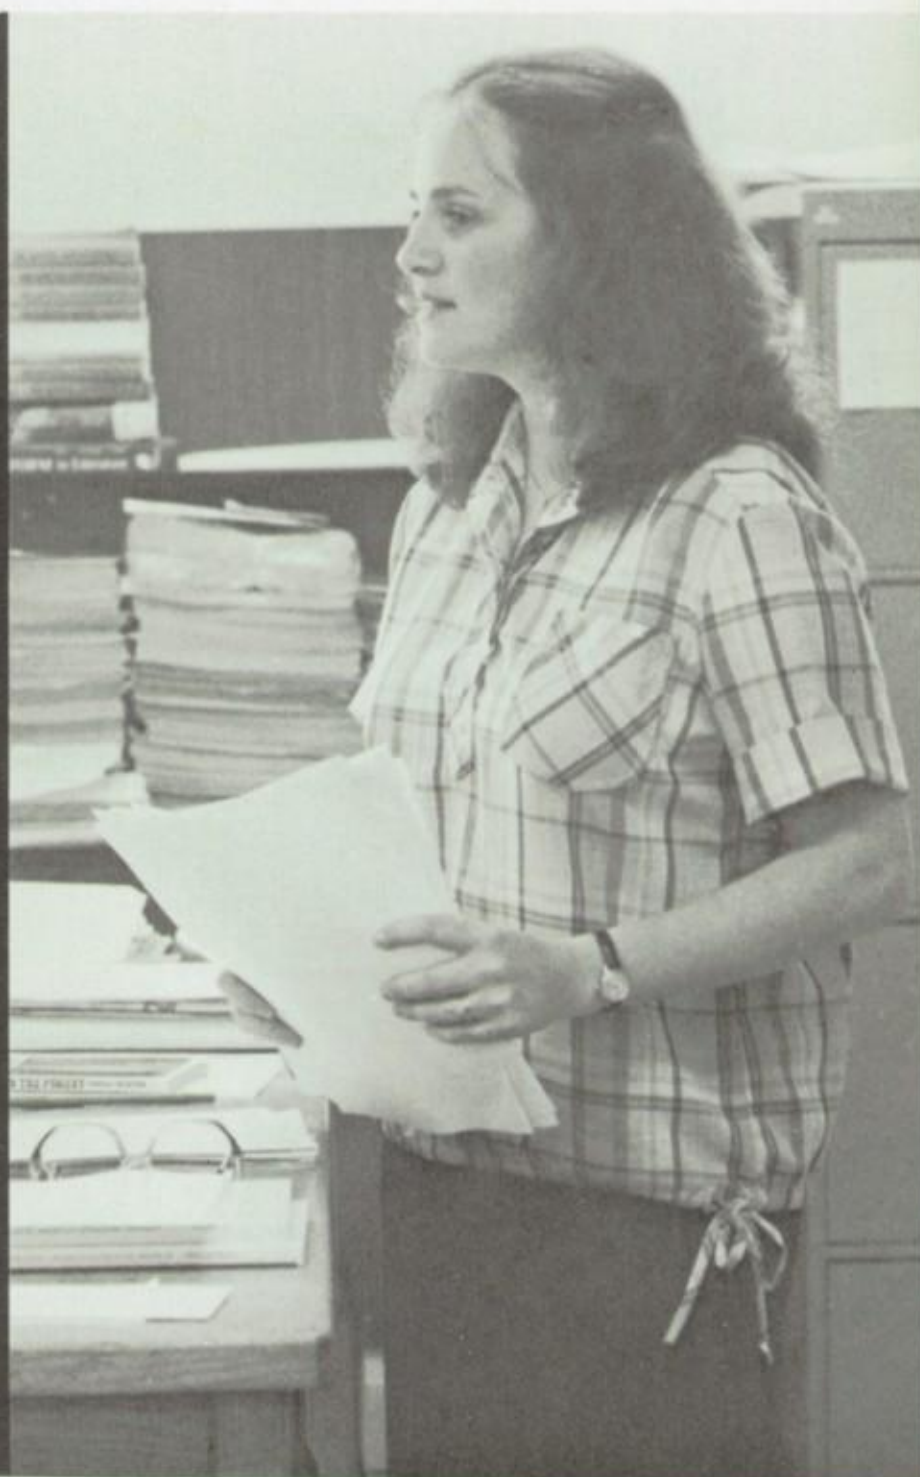

If you have one of these classes you may find yourself visiting Mrs. Gray, who is our librarian, teaches World History, and is the adviser for the Fulton High yearbook.

~~~~~ MR. MERRITT ~~~~~

~~~~~ MR. PELL ~~~~~ MRS. GRAY ~~~~~

Do you know what rooms 102,
103, and 104 have in common?

If your guess is English, you're absolutely right!

Everything you could possibly want to learn about English is taught in these rooms by
Mr. Sayers, Ms. McCarty

Students who pour into these rooms learn everything from the very basic rules of English to the complex writing of a research paper. So, if you don't know the difference between a clause and a phrase, a direct object or indirect object, Shakespeare or the Bible, you're in luck, because you have to take English, anyway!

Miss Joseph appears to be directing the audience, instead of her students!

Mr. Proko demonstrates how to play a trumpet.

FINE ARTS AT FULTON

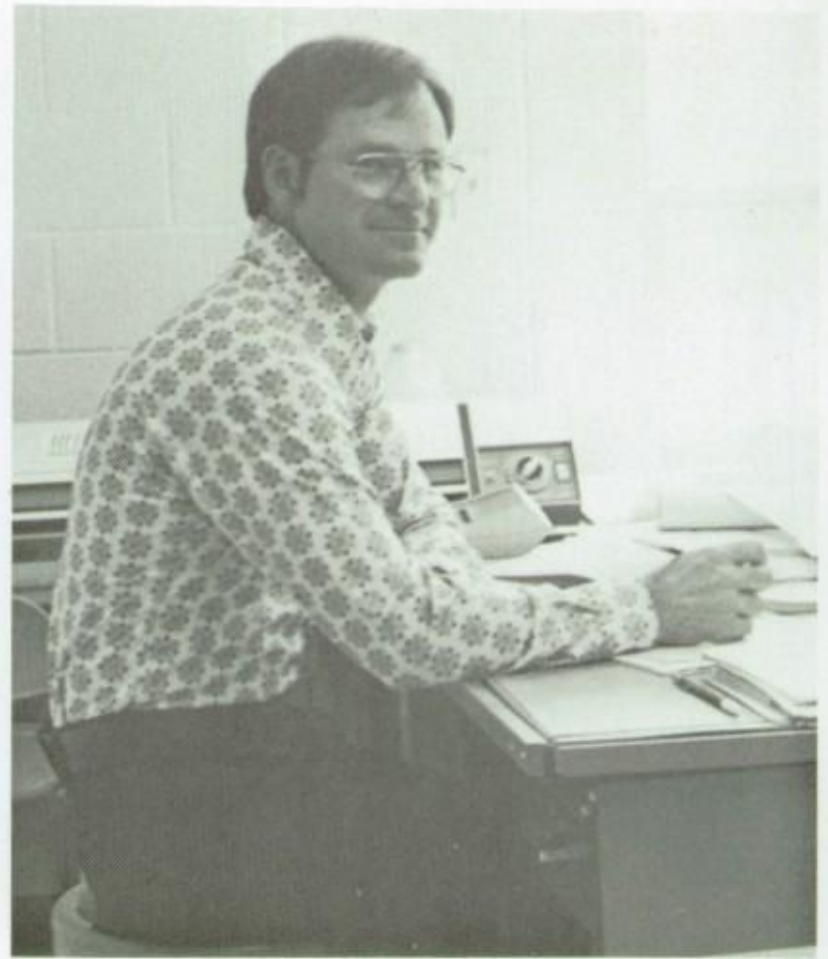

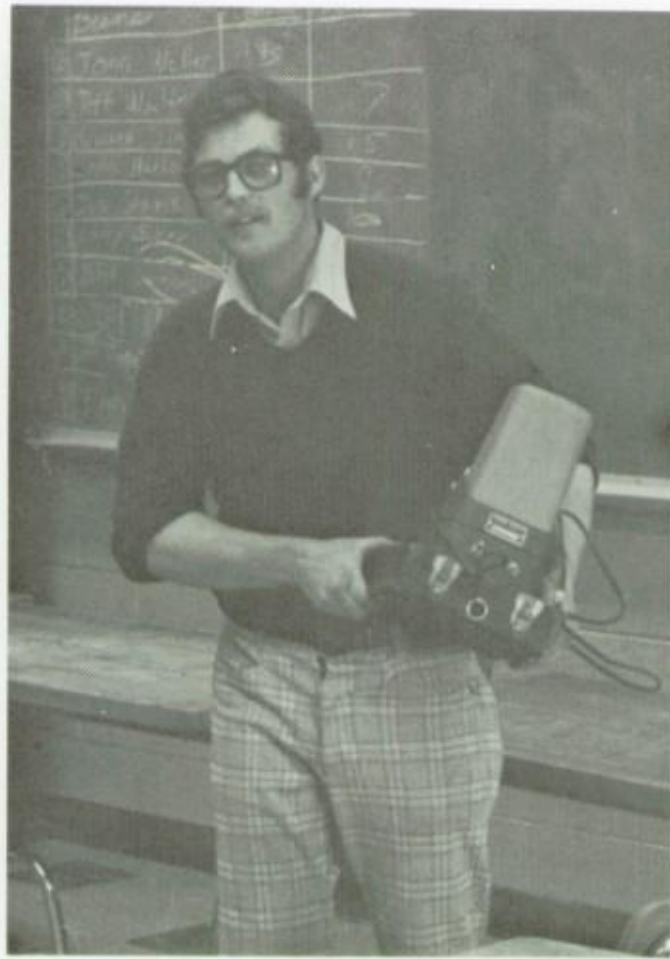

FUN IN PHYS. E D.

If phys ed is your pleasure, and morning is your time of the day, Ms. Nunemaker (above) is waiting for you. While she runs the show in the gym, Rev. Howard Spray (above right) supervises the boy's locker room. In the P.M., Mr. Miller (not pictured) will give you a run for your money (or for free) while Judy Bolyard (left) keeps the girls in line. If that's not enough supervision, student teachers may give a helping hand (or scream). Mr. Hanske (not pictured) visited Fulton in the Fall, while Ms. Swinehart (above left) joined in the Winter.

Teachers On The Job

Mrs. Rittenger- Shorthand and Accounting

Mr. Lathwell- Salesmanship
and Record Keeping

Mrs. Rittenger, Mr. Lathwell, and Mrs. Mc Kinney are the head chiefs in the subjects of Business and Home Economics.

Among the subjects that they teach are....

Mrs. Mc Kinney- Foods and Nutrition and Family Living

Mr. Glen Kanitz, Superintendent: Dr. Dan Bird, President:
Mr. William Friesen Jr., Mr. Jerome Collins

Administration

This group of seven board members with the advise of the superintendent and principal tends to the managing and hand of direction in the affairs of our school.

Secretary: Mrs. Kay Friesen ,Mr. Ron Zyzelewski, Treasurer:
Mr. Phil Hyde, Vice President: Mr. Marlin Glazier, Principal:
Mr. Harold Barr

It's a fact that without these people, all school activities would come to a grinding halt. Pictured here are the ladies that are counted upon for a million tasks. Mrs. Leatha Troub (right), as a secretary in the Principal's office, handles the activity funds. If you need a cash box for the dance, or if you have dues to pay, she's the one to see. Mrs. Marilyn Winsor (below right) also in the Principal's office, keeps the attendance records. If you've skipped, she'll know! Both of these ladies go out of their way, every day, to make life easier for all of us. Miss Angie Miller (below left) makes sure that the Guidance Office stays in order, despite the thousands of feet that track through there each day. She also helps out in the Media Center.

SECRETARIES and SUPPORT STAFF

And who can forget those lunches! We may make fun and criticize, but at 11:15 AM, it sure is a good feeling to know that lunch will soon be served. Mrs. A. Diehl and Mrs. J. Schaub, pictured here, keep our stomachs from rumbling all afternoon.

The heart of the Fulton Schools system is the Administration Building. Though few of us ever spend any time in there, we would know immediately if either of these secretaries were not around! All school policies, procedures, and funds are controlled in this office. Mrs. Mary English (left) and Mrs. Norma Wickman (below) are the experts.

JANITORS AND BUS DRIVERS

Our drivers are: D. Wilkinson, D. Terry, S. Baxter, D. Biddinger, C. Sinwor, F. Lane, E. Whitford, J. Huss, C. Miller, R. Snyder and J. Weller, Transportation Supervisor. Not pictured are: P. Claeys, D. Cramer, C. Cooper, L. Price, B. McVannel, H. Fisk, V. Winsor, C. Berry and B. Shook.

Keeping us clean are C. Richards and K. Martyn (above left) and below, from left to right, E. Troub, M. Weeks, Maintenance Supervisor, and P. Thrush. Thanks, guys!

This year as co-editors has been quite an experience, one that we are glad to have participated in. Mrs. Gray and the staff were terrific to work with.

We enjoyed helping to construct this book for you and hope that you have appreciated it. We hope these pages will bring many fond memories. Micky & Denise

The 1980 Talespin was printed by Inter-collegiate Press on Kingston I paper with a signature of sky blue parchment, eight pages of full color and eight pages of Reflex Blue spot color. The cover was designed by Marty Zimmerman and hot-stamped in blue on white shoegrain. Paste-up by the 1980 Fulton High School Annual Staff was completed on June 25, 1980.
